DETAILED ACTION

1. It would be of great assistance to the Office if all incoming papers pertaining to a filed application carried the following items:

1. Application number (checked for accuracy, including series code and serial no.).
2. Group art unit number (copied from most recent Office communication).
3. Filing date.
4. Name of the examiner who prepared the most recent Office action.
5. Title of invention.
6. Confirmation number (See MPEP § 503).

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The examiner has considered the references listed in the PTO-1449 filed 12/23/04.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The claimed limitation “wherein a first signal on the first loop is compared to a second signal on the second loop” has no support in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-2, 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Michaels (6,466,588) in view of 6,147,936).

Michaels discloses an electronic network system comprising: a central office (20); customer premises (22) coupled to the central office by a first communication path comprising a first loop. The customer premises includes a transceiver (28,29) configured to reduce the effect of far end cross talk and near end cross talk on a signal from the central office to the customer. The transceiver is an ADSL and the signals are ADSL signals (see figs. 2 and 3). Michael differs from the claimed invention in that he does not show a second communication path comprising a second loop. However, Walker et al. discloses a first communication system (2) comprising two high-speed communication links (38,40) coupled to a second communication system (4). Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use two identical loops (communication path) in the system of Michaels to provide a high-bandwidth communication between the central office (20) and the customer premises (22).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Smith (5,901,205).

9. Smith discloses an electronic network system comprising: a central office (4,52); customer premises (12,34) coupled to the central office by a first communication path comprising a first loop (58); a second communication path comprising a second loop (62). The customer premises includes (inherent) a transceiver (12,34) configured to reduce the effect of far end cross talk and near end cross talk on a signal from the central office to the customer. The transceiver is an ADSL and the signals are ADSL signals. (See fig.3 and abstract)

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claims 9-20 are allowed.

12. Claims 3-8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

13. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
